FASTEST HEAT OF EVENT FOR PACERS

Logan Hedgewood Turns Oval in 2:09 in Third Mile of Free-for-All-Elsie L. Cops Trot After Six Heats.

BY BOB PIGUE.

In the final day's racing of the harness events staged all week during the Tri-State fair, Logan Hedgewood, with Sholty up, turned the fastest mile of the entire week in the third heat of the free-for all pace. Legan Hedgewood completed the ova-in 2:09 flat, which lowered the mark who went around the oval in 2:10

Elsie L., with Hearnley in the ilky, brought home the bacon in the ost bitterly contested race of the week, when she bested Wiki Nul and Anvil Jr. Elsie L was second in the first heat, third in the second and second in the third. But in the fourth heat she got started and by some magnificent stepping she won the fourth heat, giving her another chance at first money. In the fifth heat she again showed the class that marked her racing in the fourth and came home ahead of the field.

In the deciding heat, which was raced in almost utter darkness, she unlossed herself and came in under nus Flaws, of Chicago, who served all week at the Tri-State fair races, made a bit with loval horse fans and drivers for his excellent handling of the races. Not a complaint was heard, but commendation was in evidence on all sides. Starter Flaws got through the week with the re-markable record of not having fined a single driver.

Mr. Flaws left Saturday morning for Lexington, Ky., to attend a meeting of the Harness Horse association of America, of which he is secretary. He was to have officiated in Okla-homa state fair races next week, but was obliged to cancel the engage-

With the close of the major league season Sunday, George sisler, first baseman of the St. Louis Americans, and Rogers Hornsby, shortstop of the St. Louis Nationals, seem to be certain of the 1920 batting championship of their respective leagues Ruth closed the season with a record of 54 home runs.

Sisler, according to averages, is safely in front in the Amerileague race with an average of .405, with Tris Speaker, of Cleveland, second with 387. Joe Jackson, the suspended Chicagoan, is third with 382, and Ruth, the home run monarch, is fourth with .375. The averages include games of Wednesday.

In the National league, Nicholson, of Pittsburgh, is second to Rogers Hornsby, of St. Louis among the batters with an aver-Logan age of .359. Hornsby's average was .370. Young, of New York, pulled up in third place with .354 and Roush, of Cincinnati,
